EDITORS' PICKS

“Ebecho Muslimova”

at Magenta Plains

through February 11

In this show of new drawings and paintings, Russian-born artist Ebecho Muslimova’s recurring character Fatebe finds herself, once again, awkwardly positioned. But whether she’s straddling a pile of toilet paper rolls, entangled in a folding drying rack, or speeding down a hill in a wheelbarrow, she is never less than superbly self-assured.
